To Increase Circulation

Daily Asks for Separate Budget

By BRUCE ANDERSON
Spartan Daily City Editor

Circulation of the Spartan Daily will increase from 9,000 to 12,000 copies per day if a petition movement begun by the Spartan Daily yesterday is successful.

The petition calls for ASB governance to hold a special election on the question of earmarking 15 per cent of the current student activities fee for publication of the Spartan Daily.

If the petition receives the signatures of 15 per cent of total students who hold ASB cards, the proposal will be placed before SJS students in a special election within 10 days of the petition's presentation to ASB President Vic Lee.

Peak circulation of the Spartan Daily in the past was 12,000. It dropped to 8,000 several years ago, but was increased to 9,000 this year.

Control of the Spartan Daily will still fall under the ASB Publications Advisory Board which was created by Student Council last spring. The PAB reviews and evaluates all publications which receive ASB funds.

NO COMPLAINTS

The Spartan Daily has no complaints of ASB interference, except in matters of budgeting, says Editor Ken Bryant. According to Bryant, monies allocated to the Spartan Daily fluctuate with the make-up of council each year, while the needs of the newspaper remain constant or grow at a constant rate.

ASB funds for the newspaper will drop from $41,000 this year to $32,500 next year if the current ASB budget recommendations are passed by council.

ASB provided about one-third of the Spartan Daily budget of $120,000 this year. The remainder was raised by the advertising staff of the newspaper.

INDEPENDENT DAILY

If approved by the voters, the proposal would increase the budget of the paper to $51,000 next year. (Based on 17,000 student body card holders).

Last spring a campaign for an independent Spartan Daily was begun, but postponed when Student Council requested the editor to wait until it could act on the matter. Its answer was the PAB, which has not met yet.

Petitions are being circulated by advertising and editorial staff members of the Spartan Daily and other concerned students.

The petition will be presented to Vic Lee by next Friday if the necessary signatures can be obtained by then.

ASB Election Board To Survey Students

Student Council worked up a rare appetite yesterday over the administration's placement office policy, and decided to let students share the meal.

The ASB Election Board will conduct a student opinion poll next week to determine students' feelings toward "on-campus" recruitment.

Graduate representative Jules Loventhal submitted the poll's format to Student Council Wednesday, along with a resolution calling for suspension of "outside" recruitment until such time as "Gen. Hershey rescinds his directive that student anti-war demonstrators be re-classified and drafted."

Council voted to postpone action on Loventhal's resolution until the group sees the results of the opinion poll.

Council delayed action for the same reason on a resolution passed out of Campus Policy Committee Monday, calling for support of the "administration's present placement office policy."

Graduate Representative Richard Reeb opposed the student opinion poll, stating that the matter is not one that lends itself to a popular vote.

He said the decision of who comes on campus in search of employment should be up to the administration, and that the needs of even the most unrepresentative student must be met by allowing all non-discriminating employers access to the placement office.

The poll asks whether on-campus recruitment should be continued, and if it is continued, should it be open to all groups or to only those meeting specified criteria.

If the student chooses the last alternative, he will be asked whether the administration, an all-college committee, a student referendum or ASB Student Council should determine the specified criteria.

Students will also be asked whether they belong to any campus political organization, and the extent of their interest in the recruitment issue.

Meltzer Unable To Lift Suspension

Ira Meltzer failed Wednesday to obtain a restraining order canceling his suspension for disrupting an ROTC drill October 3.

Meltzer's attorney John Thorne asked the court for an injunction, but Superior Court Judge George H. Barnett said he must obtain a writ of mandate in order to secure a review of the suspension hearings.

An injunction orders someone "not to do" something, while a writ of mandate orders someone "to do" something.

Meltzer said he has not decided if he will continue his fight. "He has been forced out of classes for such a long time, that to go further would be an effort in futility," said Thorne.

President Robert D. Clark refused comment on Wednesday's proceedings.

Trustees Meet To Decide Fate of Demonstrators

By GAIL KNIGHT
Spartan Daily Staff Writer
Pres. John Summerskill of San Francisco State College may be dismissed as a result of the recent violent student demonstrations on the SFS campus.

Donald M. Hart, chairman of the California state college trustees, has called an emergency meeting of the trustees to adopt a policy of firing faculty and suspending or dismissing students who "advocate or participate in violent campus demonstrations." The meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. tomorrow in the Chancellor's office in Los Angeles.

MILITANTS BREAK IN

Militant students Wednesday broke into the locked administration building on the SFS campus and demonstrated in the halls against suspension of other students in two recent campus incidents. Pres. Summerskill cancelled classes Wednesday afternoon in face of the disorder.

Campus demonstrations at SJS were the center of interest two weeks ago, when students protested the presence of Dow Chemical recruiters. State Sen. Clark Bradley went on record as asking for Pres. Robert D. Clark's dismissal at that time. Pres. Clark's actions were supported by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Disorder and violence on several campuses of the University of California and the state college system in recent weeks prompted a statement yesterday by Gov. Reagan.

SERIOUS SITUATION

"This situation has become so serious that it requires immediate action by the governing bodies of these institutions to insure that the academic work of our higher education centers can continue," the governor said in a message to university regents and college trustees.

Pres. Summerskill said yesterday he had received congratulations from Chancellor Glenn S.

tion differently, if I had it to do over again," he said.

Hart blamed outside agitators for the violence on various state college campuses. He vowed that all identified students or faculty members who participated in the SFS outbreak would be given swift punishment.

"All identified students immediately will be subject to campus discipline," Hart said.

"Warrants for arrested will be issued, and those few faculty members who participated will be subject to appropriate discipline, administered fairly and without delay."

Hart issued his call for a meeting minutes after Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, had suggested such a special session.

Rafferty, a member of the Board of Trustees, made the request in the face of "anarchy with its clear and present danger to student safety."

He urged the trustees to inquire why police were not called to the SFS campus Wednesday to quell the student radicals who broke into the administration building. Gov. Reagan, on tour in the East, issued a statement urging use of police when needed to preserve order.

Pres. Summerskill's refusal to Dumke on his handling of the situation.

"There is no truth to rumors that I will resign," he said, adding he had work to do at the college which he planned to continue.

Student Draft Evader Has His Day in Court

A former SJS student is on trial today in the San Jose Federal District Court on charges of draft evasion.

The trial marks the first time on the West Coast that charges have been brought against a member of the Resistance, an anti-draft group.

William T. Fisher, 21, 561 S. Seventh St., was indicted Oct. 11 by a Federal Grand Jury on a charge of failure to report for induction after he allegedly returned his induction notice to the San Jose Selective Board in June.

Fisher's attorney, John Thorne of San Jose, said Fisher refuses induction because "he believes the entire selective service is immoral and unconscionable."

Thorne said Fisher's induction papers were mailed to his home while he was visiting in the East early in June.

Fisher, a Palo Alto High School graduate who dropped out of SJS last year, was arraigned Oct. 20 in U.S. District Court in San Francisco where he entered a plea of innocent.

Mrs. Ruby Seito, executive secretary of the San Jose Selective Service Local Board, the first prosecution witness, testified yesterday that an order from the Board mailed to Fisher June 2 ordered him to report June 22 for induction.

A nine man, three woman jury was selected Wednesday from a venire of 45 by Thorne and by Asst. U.S. Attorney Paul Sloan of San Francisco.

Burns' Request For Faculty Spots Reduced By Half

The academic vice president's request for 51 additional Full Time Equivalent (FTE) faculty positions for next year has been cut in half.

State Department of Finance Auditors, last month applied their own interpretation of the Faculty Staffing Formula (FSF) and came up with an increased figure of 22.4 FTE positions.

This means that SJS's faculty-student ratio of 17.1 to one (the highest in the 18-campus state college system) will increase next year.

Dr. Robert Burns, academic vice president, stated yesterday that an increase of 51 FTE faculty positions would have kept the student-teacher ratio at its current level.

"IS SANTA REALLY COMING?" ask Ceaser Ramirez, David Lavoy and Yvonne Puentes of the SJS afternoon Head Start class. Because of the work of the Women Over 29 Club, Christmas will come for 72 Head Start children on Tuesday. The sponsors are now conducting a campus-wide fund drive for gifts for the children. Santa Claus will distribute dental kits and underwear, donated by the Kiwanis Club, and toys donated by the Women's Club.

Last Chance for Fireside Chats

Signups on Seventh Street will end today for Faculty Fireside Chats. The Chats provide the opportunity for students to spend an informal evening visiting with a professor in his home. The professors will be entertaining students tonight and tomorrow night.

Participating professors for Friday night are: Dr. John Neptune, professor of chemistry; Dr. Richard Kilby, professor of psychology; Dr. James Jacobs, professor of English; Mr. Michael Moretti, instructor of speech.

Richard Parks, instructor of drama; Daniel Varty, instructor of history; Dr. Suzanne Wiggins, associate professor of economics; and Alfred Halteman, assistant professor of mathematics.

Faculty participating Saturday night are: David Elliott, associate professor of speech; Dr. Nancy Cooper, assistant professor of English; and Dr. George Moore, assistant professor of history.

Grounds Supt. Takes Sick Leave

John H. Amos, superintendent of building and grounds, was recently granted an extended sick leave, according to the office of Financial and Business Affairs. The extended leave is expected to last until spring 1969.

Byron Bollinger, assistant superintendent of building and grounds, will be acting superintendent until Amos's return.

Treat Disease Itself

Gov. Reagan once labeled crime in the streets the major problem of the United States today, apparently ignoring the war in Vietnam completely.

But Reagan has not ignored the war at all: he merely has somehow synthesized these two areas and equated political demonstrations with crime in the streets.

Perhaps, in this way, he can easily rationalize the use of police and tear gas to disperse student anti-war protesters.

"Law and order must be maintained at all costs," says the governor, and his cry is echoed by state, city, and college officials, the most recent being State College Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke.

The trustees "will not tolerate violence, vandalism, or disruption of our educational mission," Dumke has said.

"When such acts threaten the peace, we will, if necessary, use police and civil authority to protect the personal safety of our constituents and the property of the state."

Unfortunately this statement is loaded: who is to decide what is our "educational mission," and who is to decide when the use of police force is necessary?

Surely the chancellor has no intention of including students in this decision-making.

The statement merely officially opens the door for college administrators, usually protectors of the status quo, to call for police force in quelling political protests.

And this provides them with an easy alternative to the real problem, which has been completely overlooked by the chancellor, the governor, and all those persons who are more interested in treating the symptoms than the disease itself.

The disease, of course, is a system which not only fails to be influenced by a growing resentment of our presence in Vietnam but which also tries to repress that resentment.

The question, as well as being a moral one, is political, and police simply cannot tear gas a political conviction as they can a criminal convict.

And this is not even to mention that in many cases any violence that has erupted during anti-war demonstrations, especially on the college campus, has been precipitated by police presence.

We are a society of laws, and we have been brought up to believe in the sanctity of those laws.

But laws are not sent from heaven, and if history has taught us anything, it must be that we have not only a right but a duty to oppose injustice, whether it is protected by law or government force.

Or, 20 years from now, will many of us be saying, "I didn't know what was happening. I was just obeying orders." —F.M.

'Do You Deserve Altruism?'

'Mediocrity in America Is Well Rounded Man'

Editor:

The greatest example of mediocrity in America is the wonderful, well-rounded man. Here is a man who knows a little of everything, a man who has read a page or two of this and a page or two of that. Armed with his vast wasteland of knowledge, he charges out into today's society without taking the time to realize that the rest of his future companions are in the same boat—that of pseudo-intellectualism.

Pseudo-intellectualism is being taught today in the classrooms of mediocrity, the same classrooms that developed the leaders of today.

The leaders of today are armed with a powerful weapon—altruism. They lecture the innocent youth of today that it is better to give than to receive, that the purpose of the self is working toward the common good, and that happiness is only to be found through self-sacrifice. In other words, the people are more important than the individual. If you would like a good example of what this can do to a country, then practice freedom of speech in the USSR.

The majority who follow this warped view of life deserve it. The consequence of their decision produces guilt. The guilt of the altruist is the product of his own mind, and the reason that he produced it was the fact that he keeps violating his own philosophy.

How many Christians practice what they preach?

Do you deserve altruism?

'...And It Can Be Seen For Miles and Miles...'

Editor:

"Support Your Local Police State College." Humorous? No, truthful, since we know where the Law enforcement school, the San Jose Police Dept., and the administration are all at! And we know that there are so many FBI agents, CIA agents, and cops dressed up as students on campus that they're not even sure who they all are.

The latest addition to the "Overground" is none other than the Man From Glad, better known as the U.S. Not-So-Secret Service. Wednesday afternoon he parked his car on San Fernando in a red zone and walked across the street to the Administration Building. The visor of his inconspicuous blue and white blackwall Ford had a large "U.S. Secret Service" card wrapped around it... and was he just dropping in to say hello?

So for those of you who still believe that this is a free institution, listen to the words of a couple of songs, slightly revised for present day reality—"Somethings" happened here, and what it is has become very clear... and it can be seen for miles and miles and miles and miles...

The Question Man

By JOHN POIMIROO

Do you think that the Spartan Daily should be given a fixed budget, separate from Associated Student Body Funds?

IRENE LEONG, sophomore, recreation:

"I think we should let the Daily have a separate budget. Why can't it? The student paper is important to the students. Any increase in circulation would be advantageous to us."

ANN GRIFFIN, sophomore, home economics:

"I think there are enough papers now. Too many newspapers are wasted about campus. If the students would take more advantage of the newspaper, there would probably be a greater need for more money. I do think however, that there should be a special fund available for the Daily to print special editions, like the 'Dow Chemical edition.' There should be money allotted for emergencies."

TED BRASSING, junior, business:

"I don't think that a percentage of fees is the answer. However there should not be unnecessary student government control or administration of the paper either."

JOY JACOBSON, senior, sociology:

"I think that the student government should have the power of allocation of funds. The budget must be flexible. Student government can assure this flexibility."

RALPH BLOCK, senior, economics:

"Spartan Daily should have this budgeting, because they know exactly what should be the proper circulation. They control the editorial quality, they should also be allowed to control quantity."

KEN SMITH, senior, speech:

"I personally do not have any trouble getting a Daily. Otherwise, I feel that there should be some kind of fixed income for the Daily. It is really a question of whether or not the Daily is to operate as a house organ of ASB, or whether it is to be an independent journalistic organization. I believe this is what the Daily is trying to say. If the Daily is to be a house organ, then its monies should be controlled, but if it is to be independent, then it should be given the fixed budget."

An Inquiry Into Purposes Of Our Higher Education

Editor's Note: This is a "position paper" submitted by the SJS Young Republicans. It was written by a special committee and passed unanimously by the Y.R. executive board.

What is a liberal education? It is a process which enables the student to understand his environment, to learn to think clearly, and to evaluate ideas, accepting some and rejecting others, in pursuit of the truth.

The primary purpose of the institution of higher learning is to provide a formalized education, that is, to provide classrooms in which education may take place. It should also provide an informal education which includes extracurricular activities and perhaps employment services.

The proper role of the administration is to provide an atmosphere conducive to obtaining an education by making rules and regulations and enforcing them, to staff the college with competent, trained, and responsible faculty members, and to insure they fulfill their obligations.

The proper responsibility of the faculty is to teach the courses falling within their competence, to expose students to major ideas and topics which relate to the subject matter of the course (i.e. propaganda has no place in the classroom), and to expound their ideas in an academic manner when involved in relationships outside the classroom, as in open forums. They should have a commitment to reason and to clear thinking, and should defend their positions on an intellectual level, rejecting emotional appeals, threats, or intimidation.

The proper responsibility of the student is to avail himself of the educational opportunities provided for him, which include: (1) The academic experience, as in the classroom. (2) Extracurricular activities, such as lectures, forums, student government, and student organizations.

He must also abide by the rules of the college.

Responsibilities must be carried out. The purpose of the administration, faculty and students must be to fulfill their responsibilities. When these responsibilities are misunderstood or evaded, the orderly, educational process deteriorates.

The administration, on the SJS campus, in failing to recognize and fulfill its responsibilities, on several occasions has bowed to faculty and student intimidation—resulting in the cancellation of college programs and classrooms and the general disruption of the campus.

What is the solution? As the authority on the SJS campus, the administration has the responsibility to reclaim its proper role. It should also make it abundantly clear to faculty and students what their respective responsibilities are and the limitations placed upon them.

When Reagan Gets in There

By MIKE TAYLOR

This is the story of that great humanitarian war, Vietnam.

In 1964, Lyndon Baines Johnson was elected by an overwhelming majority to the Presidency of the United States of America. The reason for this veritable landslide was simple. LBJ promised peace.

However, it seemed if there was to be peace, we would have to fight for it.

LBJ sent thousands of young men over to Vietnam every month to advise the poor, ignorant South Vietnamese people about how to gain peace.

But the South was very ungrateful. Every time we accidentally dropped a bomb on one of their villages, they complained. They just didn't realize it was for their own good. In fact, it seemed that they didn't want us there at all, but they were only illiterate peasants and what did they know? We had to stem the tide of communism. Everyone knew that. So we vowed to save the people of the South, even if it killed them.

Then, in 1968, Ronald Reagan was elected President, and things began to happen.

College students were no longer given draft deferments. Neither were high school students. The draft age was lowered to twelve and a half. All federal offenses, especially protesting, were punished by two years in Vietnam.

We increased the bombing one thousand per cent. Our motto was, "If it moves, bomb it. If it doesn't move, bomb it anyway."

This new strategy was very effective. We really put it to those dirty Commie Rats in the North. Of course, fatalities were high on both sides. In 1971, we lost 700,000 American soldiers, but it was worth it because we killed off 35,000 Commie Rats, and everybody knows a Commie Rat is 20 times worse than an American.

In 1972 the Government released some startling figures. According to their official sources, there were only twelve Commie Rats left in all of Vietnam. Ronnie Baby sent a battalion of men to finish the job. Victory was near.

Official reports disclosed unofficially that the Americans had cornered the remaining Commie Rats on Hill #578. It would be suicide for our boys to storm the Hill, so some humanitarian strategy was in order.

President Reagan decided the only humanitarian thing to do was to drop a low yield atomic bomb on Hill #578. That would save lives, he said.

On D-Day, November 22, 1972, the bomb was dropped on Hill #578. Victory was ours, that is, the South Vietnamese people's. Ronnie Baby was hailed as a genius and a great humanitarian. Both of the Nation's High Schools and its College (there seemed to be a shortage of students) were closed in celebration. One of the Nation's three remaining college students, Phour Eff, when asked to comment, said he was very relieved because he was classified I-A, even though he was blind and had only one leg and one arm.

But for the true importance of the great victory, we should hear the opinion of the common people of Vietnam. The S. F. Chronicle's fearless reporter, Super Scoop, went to South Vietnam for that story.

After three weeks of searching, Scoop finally discovered someone to interview. Exactly what he said could not be determined because his face had been burned by a misguided napalm bomb, and his lips were sealed together by third degree burns.

However, we are sure Ronnie Baby spoke for all the South Vietnamese people when he said, "After many years of hard fighting we have finally stemmed the tide of communism and made the world safe for democracy. We're sure the South Vietnamese people are very grateful."

Wherever he is.

Trustees To Decide Fate of SFS Students

call in city police was the target of official reaction.

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh declared yesterday that he is inclined to believe President Summerskill "ought to be fired."

Unruh also said that Dumke must give "more attention to disturbances. 'Anyone who can't enforce discipline may have to go,' he said.

"Neither the legislature nor the people of California can condone the senseless violence which occurred at San Francisco State on Wednesday," Unruh said.

He said faculty members who were "instrumental in organizing and participating in this riot should be summarily dismissed from their teaching positions and be barred from any future employment in our university and state college systems."

The speaker also had asked for an immediate session of the trustees to insure "that events such as Wednesday's riots in San Francisco do not recur, and that if and when they do, lives and property are protected."

In response to Unruh's statement, Pres. Summerskill said, "I would welcome an investigation of the outbreak and the way it was handled."

Stanford Carolers Storm Library

STANFORD (AP) — College officials are a little nervous these days.

The Stanford University librarian noticed a crowd gathering yesterday outside the huge glass doors at the entrance. With Wednesday's violence at nearby San Francisco State College fresh in mind, he called campus police.

Officers found a group of students preparing to serenade the library with Christmas carols.

Ann Braden Talks Today On Poverty

Mrs. Ann Braden, civil rights and anti-poverty worker, will speak today at 2 p.m. in Cafeteria A and B on "Black and White Poverty in Appalachia."

Editor of The Southern Patriot, she has twice been charged with sedition, but both charges were later declared unconstitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court.

She was first arrested in 1954 and charged by the State of Kentucky for helping a Negro veteran buy a home in an all-white neighborhood.

Mrs. Braden's recent work in the Kentucky mountain regions sparked a second charge accusing her of stirring up discontent among the poor.

The native southerner has worked for 29 years for the Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF) which seeks to organize the southern poor toward more political involvement.

The author of "The Wall Between" is sponsored by Harry Edwards, coordinator of the United Black Students for Action (UBSA) and the Peace and Freedom Party.

Alpha Phi Omega Initiates Dr. Clark Academic Award

Pres. Robert D. Clark has been honored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, for "his contribution to academic excellence and his position during recent campus unrest."

The Robert D. Clark Academic Award has been initiated in his honor, to be presented to the pledge in each A Phi O class who earns the highest grade point average during the pledge period.

"We of the fraternity respect what Pres. Clark has done for the college community during his term as president of the college," said Dan Petchers, a vice-president of the fraternity.

"We decided to stress, in addition to the cardinal principles of Alpha Phi Omega — leadership, friendship and service — the importance of academic achievement."

The award will include both a perpetual plaque and an individual plaque to be given to the winning pledge.

Senator Bradley Accepts Invitation To Speak at SJS

State Senator Clark Bradley (R-San Jose), sharp critic of SJS administrative policy, has agreed to appear on campus Jan. 9 in response to last month's invitation from ASB Student Council.

Bradley is scheduled to speak to an assembly of the general student body and later to a joint meeting of the Student and Academic Councils regarding his condemnation of Jabberwock, the SJS Tutorials program and certain faculty members.

Bradley stated in November that Jabberwock, the Experimental College newspaper, is part of a left-wing conspiracy to "undermine America."

Times and locations of Bradley's talks are not yet definite and will be announced later.

Bradley had agreed to appear Tuesday but had to change the date because the legislature will still be in session next week.

SDS Weekend Conference Seeks Policy Clarification

SJS Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) will convene this weekend "to present a clear picture regarding how our group stands in today's relevant issues," according to recently suspended SJS student, Ira Meltzer.

The convention will be conducted from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday in ED100.

According to Meltzer, those who plan to take an active part in the conclave will have to sign a statement supporting all on-campus actions SDS has taken this semester.

These, Meltzer said, would include the Nov. 3 ROTC disturbance and the Nov. 20 and 21 demonstrations against campus recruiting by Dow Chemical. He added that those not desiring to sign the support statement are welcomed to observe, but may not take an active part in the meetings.

Meltzer said workshops will be conducted in support of the Black Power movement and the proposed boycott by Negro athletes of the 1968 Olympic Games.

Sunday evening at 7, Meltzer said, the convention will close with the showing of two "revolutionary" films, "Viva Zapata" and "The Informer" in Morris Dailey Auditorium.

PKA Slates Party, Gifts for Retarded

Sunday Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity will give a Christmas party for 32 mentally retarded patients at Agnews State Hospital. Each of the patients will receive a gift.

Pi Kappa Alpha has been participating in the Agnews Volunteer Program for over a year and has seen many of the patients become re-adjusted, useful members of society.

The fraternity travels to Agnews one Sunday each month to work with the patients.

Recently Pi Kappa Alpha volunteered its fire engine to transport neighbors and furniture to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clough, of Campbell. The Cloughs had lost several items in their home due to a fire. Neighbors pitched in to replace the Clough's losses.

Spartans Battle Running Wolves

By DENNIS ANSTINE
Spartan Daily Sports Editor

Striving to tighten up its defense and be more aggressive on the boards, the Spartan cage team battles a similar University of Nevada team for two games this weekend.

Coch Danny Glines' Spartans meet the Wolf Pack tonight in Spartan Gym and tomorrow eve-

Probable starters for the Wolves will be forwards Alex Boyd (6-3) and Joe Madigan (6-3), guards Roy Lesh (6-1) and Hugh Gallagher (5-9), and center Dexter Wright (6-4).

The Spartans proved that they can move on offense with their Cal State performance, but the defense and rebounding was weak.

Dietrick's 30-point performance showed that the sophomore forward has the potential to score big consistently, but his rebounding and defensive play was lacking aggressiveness.

Holman will be making his first start for SJS this season. He has played consistently well in the first three games and turned in a strong defensive performance against Hayward. He also scored eight points and made several steals to set up easy shots for his teammates.

Nevada, a team that played a slow-down offense in recent years, will be using the fast break and press this year.

They proved this in the opener with sophomore Boyd making 49 points. "They are a quick team and will do a lot of running," Glines said. "But they can also score from outside as Lesh and Gallagher are good shooters."

Cagers On KSJS

Campus F.M. radio station KSJS, 9.7 megacycles, will broadcast live this weekend's basketball games with the University of Nevada, starting at 7:50 p.m. Hal Ramey will handle the commentary.

ning in Civic Auditorium, with both games starting at 8.

Wednesday's 81-77 win over Cal State at Hayward gives SJS a 2-1 record, while Nevada outscored Willamette University 102-88 in its opener last Saturday.

Starting for Glines will be forwards Coby Dietrick (6-10) and Don McConnell, guards Tim Holman (6-1) and Robin Durand (6-1), and center Jim Meyer (6-6).

AWE-STRUCK — Spartan cager Bernie Veasey shoots above an almost hypnotized crowd during action in Wednesday's Cal State game. The 6-6 sophomore played well coming off the bench to score 11 points.

S.J. Invitational

Gymnasts in Home Opener

Spartan gymnasts open their home season tomorrow night sponsoring the annual San Jose Invitational in Spartan gym at 7:30. Admission is 50 cents for students and $1 for adults.

Four All-Americans and 15 schools headline the program, not to mention San Jose's Tony Coppola.

Coppola, in his final year of competition for SJS, will be competing in the all-around events, which include floor exercise, long horse, side horse, parallel bars, horizontal bar and rings.

Coach Clair Jennett reports Coppola's hand should be healed so he can compete. Coppola tore the skin on his hand last weekend at the Sacramento State Invitational and finished seventh in the all-around scoring.

Doug Hills will also be performing in the all-around for the Spartans. He made his first varsity appearance last week and turned in a strong performance.

Also competing for SJS will be Tim Mullins, floor exercise; Pete Jacobs, horizontal bar; Lew Left-court, rings; Lee Stanish, trampoline and Gene Sincich, side horse.

Competing for San Jose in the freshmen ranks are Jim Turpin, trampoline; Steve Fletcher, floor exercise and Joe Sweeney, horizontal bar.

U.C. California, which has dominated the six-year meet, figures to be in the thick of it again this year with two All-Americans performing for the Bears.

Sid Freudenstein and Dan Millman will appear for the Berkeley squad. Freudenstein won the all-around title at the Sacramento meet.

Rick Grigsby, from San Fernando Valley State and Dave Nieman, from Sacramento, have also won All-American honors.

The Sitzmark

EDITOR'S NOTE: "The Sitzmark" will appear each Friday with the latest ski and weather conditions and ski news.

By RON HAGEN
Spartan Daily Sports Writer

It's Friday again and time to pack up the books and unpack the skis. Conditions are great on the slopes and fair on the highways.

The U.S. Weather Bureau says chains are required on Highway 50 from Strawberry to Myers and on Interstate 80 from Baxter to Stateline.

Chances are good that you won't have to use them as yesterday's storm has diminished and just snow flurries are expected for the weekend. Snow level is down to 3,000 feet in the north and 4,500 feet in the south.

Most of the resorts are open and report good depths and powder on pack.

INTERSTATE 80: Sugar Bowl reports 4-6 feet with daily operations. Soda Springs has 3-4 feet of powder on pack with weekend operations while Bear Valley reports 2-4 feet and is operating daily.

HIGHWAY 89: Squaw Valley reports 6 inches of new snow for 4-6 feet of powder on pack and is operating daily. Alpine, Powder Bowl and Papoose Peak received over 24 inches from the recent storm and report excellent powder on pack. Tahoe Ski Bowl and Homewood report 12 inches of new powder for totals of 3-4 feet.

HIGHWAY 50: Heavenly has 4 1/2-6 feet and all facilities are operating for the weekend. Echo Summit and Sierra Ski Ranch report 2-3 feet.

In our own backyard, Dodge Ridge reports excellent conditions with 4-5 feet and all facilities operating.

In Nevada, Slide, Mt. Rose and Incline Village all report over two feet of new powder on a base of 2-4 feet.

Mammoth received a foot of new snow for a 3 1/2-ft. total.

Freshmen Cagers Shoot for Two Tonight, Tomorrow

Undefeated frosh basketballers face two experienced weekend opponents in the San Francisco State junior varsity and the College of San Mateo.

The Spartababes, who have won four straight, take on SFS tonight at 6 in Spartan Gym and San Mateo tomorrow night at 6 in Civic Auditorium.

"S.F. State is very smart and patient," said coach Stan Morrison. "They have several juniors and seniors on the team."

The Gators are paced by 6-1 forward Don Harley and 6-1 guard Tommy Jew who has been averaging better than 20 points a game.

Morrison hopes to revenge last year's four-point loss to San Mateo when the Spartababes meet the Bulldogs Saturday night.

Two players will make it a tough game for the SJS frosh. Center Craig Farley, 6-7 and 225, could be a good match for Spartababe Darnell Hillman and 6-2 forward Roosevelt Darrough "is one of the best jumpers we'll face," according to Morrison.

Intra-Squad Meet

Evans Leads Thinclads

Sprinter Lee Evans and pole vaulter Chris Papanicolaou will head an intra-squad track meet tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. on the Spartan track.

Field events begin at 1:30 and running at 2.

Evans, who ran the 440 in 44.9 last summer, just one-tenth of a second over the world record held by Tommie Smith, will compete in the 60-yard dash and the 500-yard dash.

Papanicolaou, who won the Pre-Olympic games in October with a vault of 17-4 1/2, will compete against Spartans Bob Slover (16-4), Pearl Thomas (15-7), and John Franklin (14-4).

In the highjump it will be Dwight Tucker (6-11), Don Lindsey (6-9), and Bruce Washburn (6-6).

Shot putters Randy Raus (54-6) and Nick Brodevich (54) will compete.

In the discus it will be Raus, Brodevich, John Powell (164), Fred Hayden (159) and Bob Twelvetees (165).

Tucker heads the broad jumpers and triple jumpers. Also competing will be Sam Davis, Ellis Williams, Howard Butler, Lee Neumann, and Adrian Porter.

Javelin tossers include Rick Areide (220), Paul Hewitt (215), and Danny May (205).

Along with Evans in the 60-yard dash will be Sam Davis, who has run a 9.4 100, Bob Talmadge, and Byron Wilson, and Bob Griffin.

Other 500-yard dash participants include Tony Perez and Jeff Peo. Evans, Davis, Talmadge, Byron, Wilson, and Griffin will also run in the 150-yard dash.

Rick Rogers, Jerrold Dolphin, and Tom Flauatt will compete in the 60-yard high hurdles.

Rifle Team Notches Win Over Davis

The Spartan riflemen made it two victories in a row this season by gunning down U.C. Davis 1,422 to 1,399. The Spartan rifle team next faces University of San Francisco Jan. 4.

As usual SJS was led by the sharpshooting of Sue Meek, the California State Women's Champion. Miss Meek was seven points from perfect, shooting at 293.

Other scores include William Merriell, 284; Chris Wells, 282; Kirk Clyman, 283, and Robert Levertown with a 280.

Handel's "Messiah" which was written in the very midst of the author's misery and bankruptcy will be presented by the Music Department Tuesday evening at 8 at the San Jose Civic Auditorium.

The musical composition was written in a 24-day period in 1741 and was first performed the following year, scoring an immediate success.

For this annual production, William Erlendson, professor of music, will handle direction of this year's presentation.

Soloists for the performance include, Ralph Laris, tenor; Dr. Edwin Dunning, bass; Sharon Hayes, soprano; and Mrs. Marcia Hunt, contralto. Mrs. Kristin Sundquist will solo on the harpsichord.

Tickets for the show are currently on sale at the Music Department Box Office every day from 1-5 p.m.

Emanuel's Play 'Karen's Baby' To Debut in College Theater

Eddy Emanuel has written a play.

This is like saying the New York Mets lost a baseball game. Nevertheless, Eddy Emanuel has written a play which will be produced by the Drama Department Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 8:15 in the College Theater.

The play, "Karen's Baby," is a story of the financial pressures placed upon a young couple when the wife becomes pregnant.

It describes the conflict between those who have and those who want, and the conflict between the power holders and the power seekers, according to Emanuel.

The play is part of Emanuel's work towards a master's degree in play writing. Last year the rehearsal and performance class staged his "Lift Up Thine Eyes."

Emanuel has been awarded a $2500 Shubert fellowship for playwriting, the second SJS student to receive this award.

LeRoy Julien will direct the play in partial fulfillment of his master's degree in directing, so the play will be a chance to "show their stuff." Emanuel has said, "The only way you can correct errors is to make some real beauties. Mistakes from inexperience are eliminated only through experience."

Another novice will be directing the lighting, Jocelyn Smith, under the direction of Dr. Kenneth Dorst, will call the illuminating shots.

Principals are Karen Black as Karen, Randy Chicoine as Al, Charlotte Kutilek as Bertha, Ron Kasden as Oscar, and Barbara Benioff as Rosie.

Other performers are Ron Oppenheimer, Ron Rife, Larry Paschoal, Eric Riswold, Susan Fernell, Sherry Winnek, Tom Muller, Neal Newman, Darlene Reynolds, Ken Newald, Barb Meyer, Jana Sheldon, and Dan Husak.

Tickets are available for both performances. Tickets are $1.50 general admission and 75 cents for students.

Make a Choice: Jazz Show, 'Gynt'

Tonight you can go either to "Peer Gynt," the Drama Department's third offering this semester, or to "Really the Blues," the annual SJS Jazz Ensembles presentation.

This is the next to last performance of the play, and the last performance of the jazz fest.

Jazz soloists for the evening are Dean Stringer, tenor sax; Bill Resch, trumpet; Jerry Powers, trombone; Tom Lee, bass; Rod Christensen, trumpet, and Bob Weil, alto sax.

Principals in "Gynt" include: James Hubbard, Sandra Wood, and Wes Finlay.

"Really the Blues" can be seen at Concert Hall at 8 p.m., and "Peer Gynt," at the College Theater at 8:15 p.m.

Merman To Appear In One-Night Stand

Ethel Merman, a motion picture and television performer, who has appeared before audiences for the last three decades will star in "In the Act" at the Geary Theater in San Francisco tonight at 8.

The event which is sponsored by the American Conservatory Theatre is for the benefit of its scholarship fund.

Robert Weede, Broadway star of "The Most Happy Fella" and "Milk and Honey" will also be featured in the one-night performance.

Glass-BlowerHolds Workshop

Erwin Eisch, internationally known glass-master from Fraueana, Germany, and his assistant, Charles Paternoster, will be on campus from Dec. 16-23 to conduct a glass-blowing workshop.

Eisch presently is conducting a four-week workshop on glass blowing technique at the University of Wisconsin. He previously has made trips to the U.S. for lectures and workshops.

The on campus workshop will have 12 to 15 students participating, but anyone is welcome to observe.

Student's Parisian Visit Filled With 'Work Study'

By DIANE McNUTT

A summer in Paris is a wonderful time to relax and rest from the academic strains of the spring semester. But, unlike most tourists, Marc Lagana's three months in France were filled with work, study and research.

The 24-year-old graduate student at SJS, who was born in Versailles and lived there eight years, returned to France last summer under an SJS Foundation grant. He used this time to do research for his history thesis on Aristide Briand and his plan for European unification.

Marc interviewed 10 people who personally knew Briand, the French foreign minister who presented a plan for the economic and political unification of Europe to the League of Nations. He also did research in the French libraries to find material not available in the United States.

"I saw past politicians, many journalists and retired ambassadors, who worked for him, under him, and with him. Much of what they gave me were primary accounts which were more truthful, more historical than twice-removed books," he explained.

In his interviews, Marc asked for a description of Briand's personality and his social, private and political life.

"I was trying to get the color of a time, of an event, of a man, which is hard to extract from books," he said.

Marc's own opinion on the failure of European unification is that it was "too late and too ambitious."

"I would like to see it, personally, but based on the trends of history up to now, it's not possible to have a federation of Europe. The problems are different now. There is the problem of nationalism and ideological differences. For instance, what would be done with the Eastern European countries?" he said.

An SJS library employee for five years, Marc was authorized to purchase $5,000 worth of French books and periodicals for the library during his visit.

Marc, who has lived in San Jose for 16 years, plans to complete the work for his master's degree by June and then hopes for a federal career abroad, especially in France.

"To paraphrase Hemingway, 'you don't have to travel, there's no place to go. Just come to Paris and let the world come to you,'" he said.

One of the most memorable moments of Marc's stay in Paris

MARC LAGANA
... Studies Briand

came on July 4, American Independence Day.

"I was just stepping off the corner, when a chauffeur-driven limousine drove past, almost hitting me. I looked up, about to start swearing at the car, when I recognized the familiar profile of the gentleman in the back seat. It was French President Charles de Gaulle."

Long Beach Awaits Liner Queen Mary But Wonders What to Do With Her

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — A great welcome awaits this resort and convention city's newest queen — even though officials haven't decided yet exactly what they're going to do with her.

The queen is the 33-year-old British liner Queen Mary, bought by Long Beach for conversion into a tourist-attracting museum and hotel. The buying price was almost $3.5 million.

That was last July, and there still is no master plan showing how the 81,000-ton ship is going to be remodeled. Officials say this is understandable — that the men assigned to draw up the plans are doing so on board as she makes her final voyage, from Southampton to Long Beach.

Cardinal Spellman Buried in N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP) — The solemn pomp and pageantry of 19 centuries unfolded within the stately walls of St. Patrick's Cathedral yesterday, as the Roman Catholic Church buried its venerable prince, Francis Cardinal Spellman.

President Johnson flew in from Washington to join men of many faiths in funeral tribute to Cardinal Spellman.
